

The Stanford Student Chapter of the OPTICAL SOCIETY OF AMERICA
cordially invites you to attend its annual

SCIENCE EDUCATORS' DAY (E-DAY)

Thursday, October 15, 2009

Time: 5:30-8:00 PM (dinner provided)

Where: Frances C. Arrillaga Stanford Alumni Center – McCaw Hall, Stanford University

Cost: FREE (includes dinner)

Science Educators' Day (EDAY) 2009 is an annual event held in conjunction with the Frontiers in Optics Conference/ Annual OSA Meeting, which attracts attendees from the local optics community and from around the world. As part of the meeting, the Stanford OSA Student Chapter, Berkeley OSA Student chapter, OSA and the OSA Foundation host an event intended to expose secondary-school science teachers to the intriguing and educational world of optics, and suggest ways it can be introduced in secondary school.

The event includes:

- 20 stations with educators demonstrating and discussing hands-on materials for teaching optics to secondary school students
- gift bags containing demonstration aids and lesson plans for the first 100 registrants
- additional optics materials available as door prizes
- buffet dinner allowing you to mingle with fellow teachers and conference attendees
