In response to your correspondence dated October 9, 2019; the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) - International Events and Convention Services Program (IECSP) officially recognizes the following event:

OSA’s Imaging and Applied Optics Congress
June 22-26, 2020
Hyatt Regency
Vancouver, BC

The information provided to the CBSA states there will be approximately 346 attendees, of which 99% may be foreign to Canada. It is noted that the event is closed to the general public and there will be no sales of merchandise at the event.

As outlined in your correspondence, this event is expecting foreign exhibitors to be importing pop-up displays and signage for use at the event. Event organizers also intend to import meeting materials such as program books, lanyards, bags, printed matter and miscellaneous office machines and office supplies. Promotional giveaways will also be given to delegates.

Non-Canadian exhibitors may import display items and exhibit booths temporarily as outlined in the provisions of tariff classification 9993.00.00.00 duty free, on the condition that the goods will be exported from Canada upon the completion of the event.

It has been determined that this event qualifies under the provisions of the Foreign Organization Remission Order as outlined in tariff classification 9830.00.00.00. Conference materials (i.e. office paraphernalia, souvenirs, printed matter, pens, decorations, etc.) may enter Canada free of duty and taxes, provided the items will be exported upon the completion of the event.

Foreign exhibitors importing goods into Canada from the United States should consult with U.S. Customs and Border Protection (USCBP) prior to shipping any convention materials. It is required that goods valued at over $2000.00 USD be reported to USCBP. USCBP may document the goods on a Form 4455 in order to identify the goods upon return to the US.
Persons importing human use or animal use drugs, medicines, pharmaceuticals and medical equipment or devices, such as health supplements, medical devices and other health and medical supplies for an event, should also contact Health Canada at 1-866-225-0709 or visit their website at: www hc-sc gc.ca/index-eng.php

CBSA requires everyone seeking admission into Canada to properly declare themselves to CBSA by providing accurate identification. CBSA will accept a valid passport as proof of citizenship.

Persons who have been convicted of any criminal offences may be inadmissible to Canada. For more information please visit: http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/information/inadmissibility/index.asp

If you have attendees from visa-requiring countries (http://www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/visas.asp), please contact the Special Events Unit of Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC) at special.events@ci.gc.ca with the specifics of your event. They will assess the visa requirements of your event.

Visa exempt foreign nationals, excluding U.S. citizens, now require an Electronic Travel Authorization (eTA) to fly to or transit through Canada. For more information please visit: www.cic.gc.ca/english/visit/eta-start.asp

Are you flying into Canada? Would like to potentially cut your processing time in half? The CanBorder-eDeclaration app for your smartphone is quick, simple and secure, operates in airplane mode (one downloaded) and allows you to create a declaration for up to five travelers with the same place of residence. For more information please visit: www.cbsa.gc.ca/new-neuf/app-eng.html

To ensure that organizers and participants of your event are aware of requirements for entry to Canada, the information provided to the CBSA may be shared with CIC. The CIC may, in turn contact event organizers to confirm details of your event and provide further direction regarding admission to Canada for those attending your event.

To facilitate border procedures during entry into Canada, each participant should have a copy of this letter and be in possession of an itemized list of articles stating description, quantity and value for presentation to CBSA officials.

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned if you have any questions or require additional information.

Sincerely,
Kelly Wolfslehner
